American actress and author Mackenzie Phillips is this year's keynote speaker. Phillips is the New York Times bestselling author of High on Arrival. She rose to fame with breakout parts in 1973's American Graffiti and 70's sitcom One Day at a Time. Phillips is also the daughter of The Mamas and the Papas lead singer, John Phillips. Her personal struggles with addiction have led her to become an outspoken advocate for recovery.

Congratulations to all award winners! Please join us in celebrating their achievements by attending the 2019 Recovery Awards Dinner on Saturday May 18, 2019 at the Tuscany Suites and Casino, 255 East Flamingo Road, Las Vegas, NV 89169.

The registration opens at 6:00pm with networking beginning at 6:30pm. The awards dinner takes place from 7-9pm. Tickets are $100 each. Please visit www.forrecovery.org/awards to buy tickets, tables, ads or to sponsor.

Foundation for Recovery is the first and only statewide recovery community organization (RCO) in Nevada. A RCO is a non-profit organization led and governed by representatives of local communities of recovery focusing on education, advocacy and peer recovery support services to assist individuals seeking or maintaining recovery.
